

Adriana Nagel is one of the most dedicated REALTORS® in Corona, working with Keller Williams Realty, and serving the Inland Empire and Orange County. She is committed to delivering an unparalleled level of honesty and integrity to her client relationships. She has been an active member of her local association of REALTORS®, serving on multiple committees over the years. Some of her committees have included:

2017-2018 Director at the Inland Gateway Association of REALTORS®

2018 State Director at the California Association of REALTORS®

2018 Committee Member of the C.A.R. Housing Affordability Fund, MLS Policy, and Professional Standards.

2017 Committee Chair for Housing Affordability Fund and Cultural Diversity at TIGAR,

2017-2018 District Vice President for the Women's Council of REALTORS® California

2017 C.A.R. EXPO Influencer

2016 President for the Women's Council of REALTORS® Inland Valley, Elected as the 2019 State Governor - District #3 for the Women's Council of REALTORS® California

2018 "Woman of Distinction" Award Recipient at "All Women Rock Conference 2018"

Adriana has lived in Southern California for 27 years. She moved to the United States from Colombia, South America, after earning a B.S. in Computer Science. She has continued her education in the United States by attending classes in Accounting, Business Management and Leadership at Chapman University. She has certification and 9 years of experience as a Graphic Designer and has the following designations: PMN: Performance Management Network, CMRS: Certified Military Residential Specialist, SFR: Short Sales and Foreclosure Resource Certification.

Adriana currently resides in Corona with her husband Dave and their daughters, Jessica and Nicole. She is very active in her church, including volunteering as a Sunday School teacher for several years. She has also volunteered for more than a decade to support the American Cancer Society Relay for Life in Corona.